

About us

Comprised of The Richmond VOICE and The Hampton Roads VOICE, The VOICE is the largest audited black-oriented community newspaper in Virginia. Founded in 1985, The Voice Newspaper covers news from, by and about blacks, in a meaningful, empowering and objective way.

The Richmond VOICE and The Hampton Roads VOICE are distributed free to more than 500 sites in the Richmond and Hampton Roads Voice metro areas.

Pick up copies of The VOICE at distribution sites in the Richmond and Hampton Roads metro areas, including public libraries, bus stops, post office locations, convenience stores, churches, and other public places in Richmond, Chesterfield, Henrico, Hanover, New Kent, Charles City, Powhatan, Petersburg, Hopewell, Prince Edward, Nottoway, Newport News, Hampton, Williamsburg, Portsmouth, Virginia Beach and more.

E-mail press releases and calendar events at least one week prior to event. Send them to: editor@voicenewspaper.com

Staff

Publisher, Jack Green

Asst. to the Publisher/ Sr. Editor, Marlene Jones

Richmond Voice Editor, Algeree Johnson

Hampton Roads Voice Editor, Sharon Scott

Production Manager/Graphic Designer, Margert Sledge

Staff Reporter, Tiffany Satchell

Production Staff, Denise Smith & Gloria Fair

Administrative Asst., Tina Riddick-Harris

Dist. Staff, Hakeen Ross, Scott McCormick, Kamau Islam & Carlton Jackson